Dear Stockholder:

Fiscal 2006 was a very difficult year for the gaming industry as a whole as well as Bingo.com Ltd. What started as a very promising year with considerable growth in both our revenues and profits, ended with a complete reversal of our growth due to the sudden implementation of the United States Unlawful Internet Gaming Enforcement Act. We were able to respond quickly to this unfortunate event with the sale of our US players and a rapid reduction of related costs. Fortunately, we were well along with our plans to provide online gaming in other jurisdictions such that we were able to commence providing online gaming at the beginning of May 2007 in the United Kingdom. The United Kingdom is in the final stages of implementing its new Gambling Act which legalizes and regulates Internet gambling. We continue to provide free bingo to our faithful US customers.

We are now in the process of rebuilding our customer base and providing our games to a new audience. We enter this new market well funded and with considerable experience under our belt. We continue to be dedicated to building the world's largest online bingo hall and to provide our customers with the best entertainment possible. Bingo.com has many strong attributes that we intend to leverage to the utmost. We have a strong brand, the best URL in the business, a dedicated and hard working staff, and many great partners, including you, our shareholder. Our challenge is to make the most of these attributes which we believe we can and will do.

I am pleased to invite you to the Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the "Annual Meeting") of Bingo.com, Ltd. The Annual Meeting will be held on Thursday July 26th, 2007, starting at 10:30 a.m., Pacific Daylight Time, at Suite 1405, 1166 Alberni Street, Vancouver, BC, V6E 3Z3, Canada.

Important information concerning the matters to be acted upon at the meeting is contained in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders and Proxy Statement. The business to be conducted at the Annual Meeting includes the election of our directors; ratification of the appointment of Dohan and Company, P.A., CPA's as independent auditors for the Company for the 2007 fiscal year; and consideration of any other matter that may properly come before the meeting and any adjournment or postponement thereof.

Our Board of Directors has fixed the close of business on June 12, 2007, as the record date for determining those stockholders who are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting and any adjournment or postponement thereof.

Your vote is important. Registered stockholders can vote their shares by mailing back the accompanying proxy card. Voting by written proxy will ensure your representation at the Annual Meeting if you do not attend in person. Mailing your completed proxy card will not prevent you from voting in person at the Annual Meeting if you wish to do so.

Our Board of Directors and members of management look forward to meeting personally those stockholders who attend the Annual Meeting.

A copy of our Annual Report on Form 10-KSB and Audited Financial Statements for the year ended December 31, 2006, is included in this mailing to all stockholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting.

Sincerely yours,

/s/ "T. M. Williams"

T. M. Williams
President and Chief Executive Officer

Involvement in Certain Legal Proceedings

On February 18, 2005, Campney & Murphy, a Partnership, who acted for the Company, as legal counsel, prior to their dissolution on or about August 31, 2003, filed a suit in the Supreme Court of British Columbia against the Company. The suit is related to non-payment of invoices of CAD$57,556.02, plus interest, for services rendered prior to August 17, 2001.

We have taken the position that the amount claimed constitutes an amount significantly in excess of the value of the work performed. We have additionally taken the position that Campney & Murphy negligently breached its duty to the Company by failing to advise the Company as to certain corporate filings required under British Columbia law, with the result that the Company was put to unnecessary expense and damages. The Company is therefore seeking a set-off of some or all of the amount of the invoices on these bases. We are currently in negotiations with Campney & Murphy with a view to settling the litigation. There is, however, no guarantee that the settlement negotiation will be successful and, if not, we will defend the action in the Supreme Court of British Columbia.

To the best knowledge of the Executive Officers and Directors of the Company other than the legal proceeding as described above, neither the Company nor any of its Executive Officers, Directors or nominees are parties to any legal proceeding or litigation. Further, the Executive Officers and Directors know of no threatened or contemplated legal proceedings or litigation. None of the Executive Officers and Directors has been convicted of a felony or none have been convicted of any criminal offense, felony and misdemeanor relating to securities or performance in corporate office. To the best of the knowledge of the Executive Officers and Directors, no investigations of felonies, malfeasance in office or securities investigations are either pending or threatened at the present time.

Stock Option Plan

In September 1999, the directors of the Company adopted a non-qualified stock option plan (the "1999 Stock Option Plan"). Under the 1999 Stock Option Plan, options to purchase shares the Company's Common Stock may be granted to employees and to such other persons who are not employees as determined by the 1999 Stock Option Plan administrator (the "Administrator"). The maximum aggregate number of shares of the Company's Common Stock subject to option under the 1999 Stock Option Plan may not exceed 1,895,000. In determining the number of shares of the Company's Common Stock subject to each option granted under the 1999 Stock Option Plan, consideration is given to the present and potential contribution by such person to the success of the Company. The exercise price is determined by the Administrator, provided that the exercise price for any covered employee (as that term is defined for the purposes of Section 162(m) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 as amended (the "Code"), may not be less than the fair market value per share of the Common Stock at the date of grant by the Administrator. Each option is for a term not in excess of ten years except in the case of the death of an optionee, in which case the option is exercisable for a maximum of twelve months thereafter, or in the case of an Optionee ceasing to be a participant under the 1999 Stock Option Plan for any reason other than cause or death, in which case the option is exercisable for a maximum of 30 days thereafter. The 1999 Stock Option Plan does not provide for the granting of financial assistance, whether by way of a loan, guarantee or otherwise, by the Company in connection with any purchase of shares of Common Stock from the Company.

If a third party acquires us through the purchase of all or substantially all of our assets, a merger or other business combination, except as otherwise provided in an individual award agreement, all unexercised options will terminate unless assumed by the successor corporation.

For the year ended December 31, 2006, there were 992,000 options outstanding under the 1999 plan. No SARs (stock appreciation rights) were granted during this period.

2001 Stock Option Plan

In May 2001, the directors of the Company adopted the 2001 Stock Option Plan (the "2001 Stock Option Plan"). Under the 2001 Stock Option Plan, options to purchase shares the Company's Common Stock may be granted to employees of the Company and its subsidiaries, including officers, directors and certain advisors, who render services to the Company as determined by the 2001 Stock Option Plan administrator (the "Administrator") as Incentive Stock Options or as Nonstatutory Stock Options.

In determining the number of shares of the Company's Common Stock subject to each option granted under the 2001 Stock Option Plan, consideration is given to the present and potential contribution by such person to the success of the Company.

The exercise price is determined by the Administrator, provided that, to the extent required by law or regulation, the exercise price in the case of an Option granted to an Optionee who owns more than ten percent (10%) of the total combined voting power of all classes of outstanding stock of the Company shall not be less than one hundred ten percent (110%) of the Fair Market Value (as defined in the 2001 Stock Option Plan) on the grant date. The exercise price in the case of any Nonstatutory Stock Option, shall not be less than eighty-five percent (85%) of the Fair Market Value on the grant date. The exercise price in the case of any Incentive Stock Option granted to persons other than to an Optionee who owns more than ten percent (10%) of the total combined voting power of all classes of outstanding stock of the Company, shall not be less than the Fair Market Value on the grant date.

At the time of the grant of the Option, the Plan Administrator shall designate, the expiration date of the Option, provided that no Option granted under the 2001 Stock Option Plan shall have a term exceeding 10 years from the date of grant, and no Option granted to an Optionee who owns more than ten percent (10%) of the total combined voting power of all classes of outstanding stock of the Company shall be exercisable after the expiration of five (5) years from the grant date (or less, in the discretion of the Administrator), except in the case of the death of an Optionee, in which case the option is exercisable for a maximum of twelve months thereafter, or in the case of an Optionee ceasing to be a participant under the 2001 Stock Option Plan for any reason other than cause or death, in which case the option is exercisable for a maximum of 30 days thereafter. The 2001 Stock Option Plan does not provide for the granting of financial assistance, whether by way of a loan, guarantee or otherwise, by the Company in connection with any purchase of shares of Common Stock from the Company.

An Option will be exercisable at such times, over such term and subject to such terms and conditions as the Plan Administrator determines. Payment of the exercise price may be made in such manner as the Plan Administrator may provide, including cash, delivery of shares of Common Stock already owned.

For the year ended December 31, 2006, there were 3,225,000 options outstanding under the 2001 plan. No SARs (stock appreciation rights) were granted during this period.

2005 Stock Option Plan

In May 2005, the directors of the Company adopted the 2005 Stock Option Plan (the "2005 Stock Option Plan"). The aggregate number of Shares which may be issued upon exercise of Options under the 2005 Stock Option Plan at any time shall not exceed 2,000,000 Shares subject to adjustment as provided for in this Plan

The exercise price is determined by the Administrator, provided that, to the extent required by law or regulation, the exercise price in the case of an Option granted to an Optionee shall not be less than the Fair Market Value (as defined in the 2005 Stock Option Plan) on the grant date.

At the time of the grant of the Option, the Plan Administrator shall designate, the expiration date of the Option, provided that no Option granted under the 2005 Stock Option Plan shall have a term exceeding 10 years from the date of grant.

For the year ended December 31, 2006, there were 1,195,942 options outstanding under the 2005 plan. During the most recently completed fiscal year, 367,192 options with an exercise price of $0.91 were granted to directors, employees and consultants under the 2005 Stock Option Plan. No SARs (stock appreciation rights) were granted during this period.

Our Board of Directors administers the 1999 Stock Option Plan, the 2001 Stock Option Plan and the 2005 Stock Option Plan (collectively, the "Stock Option Plans"). Our Board is authorized to construe and interpret the provisions of the Stock Option Plans, to select employees, Directors and consultants to whom options will be granted, to determine the terms and conditions of options and, with the consent of the grantee, to amend the terms of any outstanding options.

The following table sets forth details of all exercises of options granted under the Stock Option Plans during the financial year of the Company ended December 31, 2006, by each of the Named Executive Officers and the value as at December 31, 2006, of unexercised options granted under the Stock Option Plans on an aggregate basis:
